YUMA, Ariz. – Less than a month remains until the El Toro Bowl kicks off in Yuma! The best part? Tickets are on sale NOW to the general public! The game is December 1 at 1:00 p.m. at Veterans Memorial Stadium, and it always features some of the premier junior college talent in the country.

This year, tickets cost $10 for reserved seats and $5 for general admission, making it an incredibly affordable way to have a great afternoon of family fun! Plus, the AWC Foundation and Yuma 50 are partnering to host a pre-game tailgate across the street from the stadium.

Tickets are on sale in multiple locations around Yuma. The Arizona Western College Athletics office (cash or check ONLY) by the gymnasium will be open Monday to Thursday, 9:00 through 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. The AWC Foundation office in the 3C building at the main entrance to the Yuma campus (cash, check or credit) will sell tickets. Tickets are also available seven days a week at the Visitor Information Center (201 N. Fourth Avenue) from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Tickets are also available online at the bowl website: <http://eltorobowl.com/tickets.html>.

This year marks the eighth straight year of the El Toro Bowl back in Yuma. The game has been the NJCAA National Championship twice in that stretch and has featured teams from all across the United States.

The El Toro Bowl originated back in the late 1960's, and AWC played in the game four times. In 1972, the Mats won their only NJCAA National Championship at the El Toro Bowl to cap a perfect 10-0 season under legendary head coach Ray Butcher.

The two teams will be announced for the game on Tuesday, November 13. For ADA at the game, email accessability@azwestern.edu or call 928-344-7674 by Monday, November 26.

Arizona Western College is one of the top community colleges in Arizona. The college boasts partnerships with all three state universities that include face-to-face classes in Yuma.
